When we kiss that way
I search for words that
Might explain
How can a love go so deep
Girl, it's in my blood
It'll always be a part of me
If we stay together
Or if we go our separate ways
I know... love will last forever
The sun may someday lose it's light
The moon may not shine one night
Your heart will always have a home
It is written in stone - written
In stone
Seasons go by and minds
Have changed
But I will never doubt why i
Feel this way
It goes on so strong
Like a solid rock
Even when the moment's gone

Nothing lasts forever

But one thing's sure to stay

The same

Our love... the love is getting better

The sun may someday lose it's light

The moon may not shine one night

I know just how the story goes

It is written in stone - written

In stone

True love is timeless and

Unconditional

You don't need to read the writing

On the wall

I can see the future - happiness

Won't fade away

The sun is in the sky just like it

Was yesterday

Love will last forever

The sun may someday lose it's light

The moon may not shine one night

Your heart will never be alone

It is written in stone - written

In stone

True love is timeless

It will grow through smiles

And sadness

Won't you walk with me
Our love, it will be forever
I know sometimes you might not Believe it
But baby I'll do my best to show
You, let you see it
Time might not be so bad
I know we'll come out ahead
Love is timeless
Timeless and unconditional
You don't need to read the writing
On the wall
It's written in stone
Happiness won't fade away
