

Hall Kristen

"Trouble Times"

Visit "Trouble Times" on MotoLyrics.com it's hard to make your way with open eyes when your feel so much like crying it's hard to keep yourself an open mind baby in these trouble times from these days of emptiness and pain you just never see things quite the same it's hard to greet the world with no disguise baby in these trouble

times a little foggy is your fragile face a little clearer are the lines

talk is cheap so are the things we seek baby in these trouble times though you never seem to show the strain there's a hint of hatred in your veins don't stop believing it's your only line baby in these trouble times you can rise above the wind and rain faith will land you on your feet again it takes a lot to keep a dream alive baby in these trouble times don't stop

believing it's your safety line baby in these trouble times

(Dede Vogt/bass and mandolin, Michele Rhea/vocals)

Visit Hall Kristen page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.