Cracks inside following close
Still I never could live
Without protection
Cracks so clear
Hoping it brings you near
Turn me to dust
Your sweet complexion
Crawl for now
Things will be clear somehow
Everything turns so fast
It's broken
You can change anything
You can fix everything
You can breathe
I'm choking
That's someone else
I wish I was now
Confide in me
These words that somehow
Shake your breathing
Soak through us all
And it's taking me over
And it brings me to you
Crawl for now
Things will be clear somehow
Everything turns so fast
It's broken
You can change anything
You can fix everything
You can breathe
I'm choking
That's someone else
I wish I was now
Confide in me
These words that somehow
Shake your breathing
Soak through us all
And it's taking me over
And it's taking me over
And it brings me to you
Cracks inside following close

Still I never could live
Without protection
