No, don't leave me alone,
In this life,
She just closed her eyes,
Flatlined, choked and died.
Please,
Start breathing again,
My love,
Come on please survive,
She's too far gone to try.
Stay with me now,
Don't go to sleep,
Wait for the sunrise,
Just you and me,
I want you to know,
I never told you this.
Just too late,
Should've told her before,
But you never did,
You never said.
Oh in a second,
It's all slow motion,
Isn't it,
Standing by her bed.
Stay with me now,
Don't go to sleep,
Wait for the sunrise just you and me,
I want you to know,
I never told you this,
I should've let you know,
I never let you know,
I wish I'd let you know.
