

Hallows Eve

"Voice From The Grave"

I don't feel like sleeping,
I don't feel too good,
I'm alone,
Now you're gone,
You're all that I lived for,
All that I knew,
How to do,
But you're gone.
You killed me today,
Blew me away,
So how can I live,
Without you.
So I breathe for the last time,
And these are the last words,
You'll hear me say.
I guess you're the lucky one,
Your life goes on,
So have fun,
But I'm done.
You killed me today,
Blew me away,
So how can I live,
Without you.
Perhaps in the next life,
I'll see you again,
And I'll love you forever,
That's the end.
But somehow it seems,
Whatever I say,
I'm just a voice from the grave,
Without you.
