Inside nowhere, gets so cold here
Trapped in this reflection of me
Kiss me gently, screw me, rent me
All I wanted, is all I can see
This is all I ever thought I'd never feel
When I dream about you, feels like it's for real
Now I'm lost without you,
I'm still waiting here
Still here
Eternity, You're so pretty
Dressed in black so fashionably
I'm too easy, touch me, tease me
Blow me into infinity
This is all I ever thought I'd never feel
When I dream about you, feels like it's for real
Now I'm lost without you
I'm still waiting here
Still Here
This is all I ever thought I'd never feel
When I dream about you, feels like it's for real
Now I'm lost without you
I'm still waiting here
Still Here
