sifted out like grain touched by the fire again the day turns into darkness i drown my despair

where is my hope and comfort?
do i have strength of stone?
i long to see your face
take me out of this place teach me and i will be quiet show me where i have been wrong how painful are honest words what do your arguments prove?

surely i speak of those things i do not understand therefore i despise myself and repent in dust and ash

i long to see your face
