No one ever has to be alone
If i got you in my door
I wouldn't be so bored
And hiding all my thoughts
Wouldnt be so wise
Cause you would never know
You would never know
That im all eyes
When you come around
Will you ever be mine
Mine all mine
Mine all mine
Once upon a time i caught
Your eye
But i was much too shy
I was terrified
But happy ever after is in my Mind
Will you be mine
Will you be mine
'cuz im all eyes
When you come around
Will you ever be mine
Mine all mine
Mine all mine
