Time has come... to batter down the bridge behind you
The fate is done for you... and all your dreams come true
Now way back... your heart is pounding now in your neck
Time to hit the road... never, never look back

Just shut the door
Just shut the door behind you
Exile the trouble out of your mind

Break down the walls
Break down the walls
And let your spirit to be free for sure

Reach dreamland... the power and force is just in your hand
Can't you see the sign... now it's time!

Just shut the door
Just shut the door behind you
Exile the trouble out of your mind

Break down the walls
Break down the walls
And let your spirit to be free for sure
