Farewell to the night
The sun is shining bright
With you in my heart
Even the rain seems right

The things that you love
Did away with the brown
They lift me up to where I belong

'Cause it takes the best to keep me away
From the rest of the world
Yes, it takes the best to keep me away
From the rest of the world

Although that I've been gone
I've loved you all along
And I just can't get you out of my song

Yes, I'm singing this song
'Cause I know it won't be long
Till I'll be with you
And feel it like I'm never been gone

'Cause it takes the best to keep me away
From the rest of the world
Yes, it takes the best to keep me away
From the rest of the world

And that's you, girl
Yes, it takes the best, oh yes
And that's you, girl

Yes, it takes the best to keep me away
From the rest of the world
Yes, it takes the best to keep me away
From the rest of the world

Yes, it takes the best to keep me away
From the rest of the world
Yes, it takes the best to keep me away
From the rest of the world

Yes, it takes the best to keep me away
