There's never been any reason,
or escape from the treason,
you just think I'm a tide, far away...
I feel your flame and your anguish,
I know your plans and your last wish,
you just can't face it another day...

Angel of Mercy, take her to your homeland,
Angel of Mercy, you can feel the signs,
it's the end, it's the end.

You've stood along the lifeline,
you've played the fool for the last time,
you just want the joy and the peace...
You've heard all the laughter,
you've seen what your after,
you just want the rest and the sleep...

Angel of Mercy, take her to your homeland,
Angel of Mercy, you can feel the signs,
it's the end, it's the end.

Angel of Mercy...
Angel of Mercy!

(solo)

You can hear the clock's tick,
as you scheme for your last fix,
from a place you never will awake...
I hear you cry into the night,
I hear you die within my fright,
but now you've saved your mistake...

Angel of Mercy, take her to your homeland,
Angel of Mercy, you can feel the signs,
it's the end, it's the end.

Angel of Mercy...
Angel of Mercy!
