Sighs

The fury has electrified my mind

Sighs

The hatred burns inside by the mark of vengeance I will grind

Sighs

The sound of metal falling to the ground

Sighs

By blood we will unite by blood we are forever bound

Vengeance calling me, oh, please set me free

The Fury of the Wild

Locked up in this cage, can't you feel the rage?

The Fury of the Wild

Sighs

Your silence will not sanctify your crime

Sighs

When revolution calls I will be the first in line

Vengeance calling me, oh, please set me free

The Fury of the Wild

Locked up in this cage, can't you feel the rage?

The Fury of the Wild

Now as you stand on your own with the future, face to face

Take a look at me now

Feel the fury, taste my rage

Come taste my revenge

Unbent

Unbowed

Unbroken

Vengeance calling me, oh, please set me free

Is the Fury of the Wild

Locked up in this cage, can't you feel the rage?

The Fury of the Wild
