Icy water on my hands
The roar of thunder everywhere
I close my eyes, I realize I'm far away from home
In the Twilight Zone, the shadows mourn
Out of the light came the shining...
The Metal Age

Ivory towers conceal my eyes
Caught up in a long lost time Where no one speaks, at liberty they guard their destiny
To forge the steel, they will reveal
Out of the night came the shining...
The Metal Age

I'm falling into a breach
I'm a stranger in this lands, I'm falling Standing strong, the brave and the elder
With scars seldom forgotten, above it all Come with us, offering shelter from the icy wind that shiver
Come with us to the twilight zone, oh year

You're welcome to the METAL AGE

Hear the bell begin to chime
That moonlit skies burst out in flames
The time has come, it must be done, let the power be unchained
By the force within, let the war begin
Out of the night came the shining...
