are you familiar - have i seen you before?
or are you just a shadow?
silhouette - nothing more?
CHORUS
maybe love has a face i don't recognize maybe love has a face i won't look in the eyes it comes out of the blue and i won't be surprised maybe love has a face i don't recognize
was it only a reflection?
or a memory of too much?
a single cold desire or an aching for a touch?
CHORUS

how can a heart be a stranger
it's only nerves on bone
if it's only sensation
how can a heart turn to stone?
now i long for recognition
now i long to clear my eyes is there a smile that seems to know me?
is there a look behind your eyes?
