"No Moon In The Water"

So

if it's just so then

where is it now when

I find the moment

uncertain?

Broken water pail -

no moon in the water,

try to hold it now.

So

I want to hold on

reflections all gone,

no ego - so.

Broken water pail -

no moon in the water,

try to hold it now,

broken water pail,

hold me in the moment,

no more ego now.

I would

drink the drags of daylight, break the bread of consciousness and dream:

dream day for night,

nightfall around us,

waking, dreaming,

awake to the dream.

Broken water pail -

no moon in the water,

try to hold it now,

hold me in the moment,

no more ego now,

no moon in the water,

no more ego now
