Lyrics by Phil Wilde, Peter Bauwens, Jean-Paul De Coster & Steven Tracey

Time is an open book

We share our dreams together

And we will be who we want to be - wherever

Life is a mystery

The world can be your saviour

But let love be your gravity forever

I'll take you to an endless dream

No matter how it all may seem

I know we'll find a way - Never say Never

We all need - someone to get there

If you just dare

You can count on me

Someone to get there - baby

We all need - someone to get there

If you just dare

You can count on me

Someone to get there - baby

Love can take us anywhere !

Nothing can stop us now

We're strong when we're together

And every step brings us closer now forever

I'll take you to an endless dream

No matter how it all may seem

I know we'll find a way - Never say Never

We all need - someone to get there

If you just dare

You can count on me

Someone to get there - baby

We all need - someone to get there

If you just dare

You can count on me

Someone to get there - baby

Love can take us anywhere !

We all need someone to get there - We can see love can take us anywhere

(x4)

Whooh Whooh Whooh

Oh yeah

We all need - someone to get there
If you just dare
You can count on me
Someone to get there - baby
Someone to get there !
We all need - someone to get there
If you just dare
You can count on me
Someone to get there - baby
Love can take us anywhere !
Someone to get there
If you just dare
You can count on me
Someone to get there - baby
Someone, somewhere, somehow
We all need - someone to get there
If you just dare
You can count on me
Someone to get there - baby
Love can take us anywhere !
