Key:-A - anita R - ray

A: tuning into something wild

A: like a comet from space
Like a slap in the face
You can feel it coming
Like a push in the back
Turning white into black
Youre feeling something wild now!

A: you're feeling something wild now!

R: hey precious, hey burning child Time to tune to something wild Its new, it's hot, it's all you're not Don't turn back, it's all weve got Youre breathless, you're out of step Time to learn just what is hip If you think you're in a jumble That's the way the cookie crumbles

A: tuning into something wild Tuning into something

Like a slap in the face
You can feel it coming
Like a push in the back
Turning white into black
Youre feeling something wild now!

R: wilder and wilder
A; you can feel it coming!
R: well, maybe so-- were in a mess
World gone wrong but don't forget
There's a groove that makes you wonder
How the hell they sample thunder
Its glorious, it's boom, boom, boom
Bless the noise that shakes the room

If you think were getting milder Brace yourself for something wilder
