Yeah!
Hey!
Cool down!
Hey!

Last night we had this conversation,
You're rushing my heart, there ain't no mistaking
I need someone who's got real emotion
Stop pushing so hard, I need your devotion

Cool down baby, love don't take a minute,
Drives me crazy, everytime we're in it,
This time baby, look you will see,
The way it was mean't to be!

So if you wanna get up and if you wanna get down
Now listen baby that's the way the world goes round
So if you wanna get up and if you wanna get down
I tell you baby that whats love is all about!
Yeah!

Now listen up, just stay together
Just get with my mind, so it last forever
I need a lover with a true connection,
Straight to the heart, yes that's my intention

Cool down baby, love don't take a minute,
Drives me crazy, everytime we're in it,
This time baby, look you will see,

The way it was mean't to be!

So if you wanna get up and if you wanna get down
Now listen baby that's the way the world goes round
So if you wanna get up and if you wanna get down
I tell you baby that whats love is all about!
So if you wanna get up and if you wanna get down
Now listen baby that's the way the world goes round
So if you wanna get up and if you wanna get down
I tell you baby that whats love is all about!

Hey!

So if you wanna get up and if you wanna get down
Now listen baby that's the way the world goes round
So if you wanna get up and if you wanna get down
I tell you baby that whats love is all about!
So if you wanna get up and if you wanna get down
Now listen baby that's the way the world goes round
So if you wanna get up and if you wanna get down
I tell you baby that whats love is all about!
YEAH!
