You've been lying
Since the beginning
You're cursed, you're mad
Now I know better...
I won't listen
You just want to steal my life

I'll runaway from you
And to the light, I will come
Runaway from you
And from your lies I won't be blind

I was made for a purpose
I won't let you take that from me
Coz I have a destiny
I'll live for his glory

I'll runaway from you
And to the light, I will come
Runaway from you
And from your lies I won't be blind

You always want me to fall
Accusing me of all my flaws
But my guilt was taken away
By this man on the cross

I'll runaway from you
And to the light, I will come
Runaway from you
And from your lies I won't be blind
I'll runaway from you
And through his light I will shine
Runaway from you
And from your lies
I won't be blind
I'll runaway... yeah... ooh
