down that foggy road
slow centipedes crawl plum blackberries fall and the ground is dark as blood

the moon burns red as flame weeds snap in the rain dogs are dragged off in the flood bury me here in the silvery mist bury me here with the spiders and fish

black bears crawl to sleep tree sap slowly seeps and the sunrise never come
