Walk through those open doors
Stare at the concrete floor
That blinding strobe light
Puts everyone in sight
Looking around for people you know
The djs playing Flo Ridas "Low"
Head to the back of the room
That beat goes boom boom boom

There hot guys everywhere
Girls messing with their hair
Beat from the speakers
Runs through your sneakers
Take off your shoes
Dance contests comin soon
Grab your boy get your party on
Were dancing all night long

The beat it takes you there
There's people everywhere
You're spinning round and round
You drop to the ground
Then you bring it up slow
The music takes control
It drives you insane
Come on everybody were dancing for the fame

Everybody's dancing
To hell with romancing
Nobody cares
Just as long as they know that the beat is there
Even though not everybody can dance
Were gonna take the chance
Here comes Pinks song "So What"
Were waiting for the speakers to blow up

There's hot guys everywhere
Girls messing with their hair
Beat from the speakers
Runs through your sneakers
Take off your shoes
Dance contests coming soon

Grab your boy get your party on
Were dancing all night long

The beat it takes you there
There's people everywhere
You're spinning round and round
You drop to the ground
Then you bring it up slow
The music takes control
It drives you insane
Come on everybody were dancing for the fame

I know that were bringing down the room
When I hear that beat go boom boom
We drop it down low till we can't go no more
Come on everybody here we go
Were over ruling the floor
Dance till our bodies hit the floor
This is our last year to take control

There's hot guys everywhere

The beat it takes you there
You drop to the ground
Then you bring it up slow
The music takes control
It drives you insane
Come on everybody were dancing for the fame

The beat it takes you there
You're spinning round and round
You drop to the ground
Then you bring it up slow
It drives you insane
Come on everybody were dancing for the fame
