Leave and said
"It's easier to destroy than to build"
And then look when love's gone
And look what all our hate's done

It's seems I held your hand
'Cause I thought I could understand
The way I let myself along
It trapped my body and my soul as one

It doesn't matter now
I'm trapped inside i find no reason
It doesn't matter now
I'm trapped inside my own reason

It seems I held your hand
'Cause I thought I could understand
The way you let me on my own
The way our love is like a song

It doesn't matter now
I'm trapped inside i find no reason
It doesn't matter now
I'm trapped inside my own reason

Let me be my own reasons
Let me fake my own prison

It doesn't matter now
I'm trapped inside i find no reason
It doesn't matter now
I'm trapped inside my own reason
It doesn't matter now
I'm trapped inside i find no reason
It doesn't matter now
I'm trapped inside my own reason
