(I try)
(I try)
(I try)

I think I'm gonna take it slow
And tell you the things that are on my mind
Then you can drop me off at home for the last time
I only wanted you to know that
I always had the best of intentions
Look at what you put me through
Anything I would have done for you

But it's not how it used to be
When you and I were hooked on each others dreams
Got stuck in reality
And you couldn't make everything feel alright
When I gave you the best of me
I never thought you'd give me a reason to tell you I'm leaving
I ran out of patience, when you started changing
And there's no tears left to cry
(I try) Kept on hoping we could find a way to make it
real
(I lie) And tell myself that it's getting better when it never will
(You know)that I would never want for you to be alone
Its so hard to tell you so
But I'm letting go

Now I'm not trying to regret
Anything that I've done or the things I've said
Life has a way of making change like the seasons
(Summer, spring, winter, and fall)
Sometimes I feel so all alone
I wish you were there on special occasions Feelings for you I can't hide but I know better than to drop my pride

But it's not how it used to be
When you and I were hooked on each others dreams
Got stuck in reality

And you couldn't make everything feel alright
When I gave you the best of me
I never thought you'd give me a reason to tell you I'm
leaving
I ran out of patience, when you started changing
(I try) Kept on hoping we could find a way to make it
(I lie) And tell my self it's getting better when it never
will
(You know) That I would never want for you to be alone
Its so hard to tell you so
But I'm letting go

I've made up my mind (i've made up my mind)
No more tears to cry (now there's no tears left to cry)
I didn't believe you each and everytime
You said you changed I knew that things would stay the same
It would only be right
I've gotta move on with my on life

(I try) Kept on hoping we could find a way to make it
(I lie) And tell myself it's getting better when it never
will
(You know) That I would never want for you to be alone
Its so hard to tell you so
But I'm letting go

Its alright, I don't want another try
Cause I'm letting go
You can leave, you don't need to say goodbye
Cause I'm letting go
Now I know, that I just gotta live my life
I'll be fine
It's so hard to tell you so
But I'm letting go
