Night

Field of stars above us

You pick one

We frame it with our fingers intertwined

Seeds of every generation

Between our hands

And the promise to teach you the little I have learned

So far

[CHORUS]

Child

What will you live to do?

What have I left for you?

What will we leave behind?

You

Learning as you're growing

Not yet knowing

The world isn't always quite as beautiful

As it is now

[CHORUS]

[INSTRUMENTAL]

Night

Field of stars above us

I pick one and name it for you

And all who are to come
