For those that know me
For those that know me
For those that know me
For those that know me, indeed I like to flow

Authentically raw wit it, see I augmented this industry
To submit to my will, all attempts to limit me
Can kneel, peel caps wit ill raps
Nothing convenes here till your camp gets smeared like pap

What you tryin' to tell me, skills never found me Workin' for peanuts amongst jelly MC's, really ain't my steez
Peep game, I plot on different ways to make these styles
Ricochet through main frames

The day-to-day theme is turn these fake teams gangrene
My main vein's the only thing about me mainstream
You doubt me like the foes of Noah, embarkin' in this Ark
The soul controller, while fools caught up in this Del used to blow up

You're inundating wit the out-dated
See all of y'all fall when this cascade hits
Yo D, watch these watered-down clowns get drowned And lounge sound broken down in Cuba tryin' to build ships off shit they bit

I spit that major play saliva
Taylor-made for cypher sole survivor
Pay the piper if you plan to go inside my covenant Better come in two's, matta fact come a crew to get you back

Executives, we wet you wit the hymns that leave you and your man
Packin', attackin' wit verbal cataclysms Leavin' the average rapper drenched and grab a trench

Guard against my El Nino lingo
A labyrinth of keen flows, concealed within the single

This is Waterworld
For those that know me, indeed I like to flow
Waterworld
For those that know me, indeed I like to flow

This is Waterworld
For those that know me, indeed I like to flow
Waterworld
For those that know me

My scripts consist of H2O, hip hop and oxygen
I flip commission doctrines that make me Shake-Speare's pier
Upon this here tear I fear not Killin' furious wit the superior onslaught

On top of this isle solo, like Gilligan wit a million styles
To throw yo' way wit capital A
We make waves, causin' tsunamis to your armies Splashin' like the cracken on clash of the Titans, writin' calmly

Call me Aquarius, each full page a new age
I'm on a crusade to ranter your parade
See 'Core is more than three-quarters of what this rap world secure
So this is Chinese water torture for MC's to endure

As I restore this reservoir wit my repertoire of metaphors
Step into the 'Core, better have your life insured
For supernatural disasters, I'm quick to cast a flame
To your astral plane, it's bitch-made, get played like Canasta

Waterworld
For those that know me, indeed I like to flow
This is Waterworld
For those that know me, indeed I like to flow

Waterworld
For those that know me, indeed I like to flow
This is Waterworld
For those that know me

What's an MC without concepts
I speak easy comin' to offset your plumbing

Like leaky faucets, runnin' my dungeon wit aquatic contraptions
The fifth fold's a fish bowl, kick hard as contractions
Wit skitzo-memos closed-captioned

Your lip's sewed 'cuz hardest to your fraction try to test me
You wouldn't tip-toe through Moses parted Red Sea, it's bound to collapse
So now what makes you think the sound of these raps
Is something different, I'm even pitchin' the kitchen sink wit comin' with it

Liquefied rhymes rhyme wax
It's time for jack-fakers to vacate, they take up space Like the Great Lakes, makin' a great case for me to hate
Paint a picture clear as Evian, raps on tap like Savior
Glover

Undercover, peeps wonder, why he became the architect 'cuz none love us
We spark the shit that makes the blood cometh
Wash away your blockade plus your brigade
Tryin' to sandbag clever words together

The weather, the storm, porn's poured on cassette wit architect sweat
In the cores of us form when he pass Tech-12's
I delve deep in this abyss, inspect hell
Tell a fallen angel to eat a dick if he gets pissed 'cuz

This is Waterworld
For those that know me, indeed I like to flow
Waterworld
For those that know me, indeed I like to flow

This is Waterworld
For those that know me, indeed I like to flow
Waterworld
For those that know me, indeed I like to flow

Flow
Flow
