White lines on the kitchen table*
White lines knocked them one by one, by one Tell me baby if you're feeling nervous
You call at the window you can call, you can call anyone, anyone
Late at night when the party's over
We swim to the city like fish and wait for the sun, for the sun
I get the feeling like I have no purpose
And I'm just an animal you call but won't come, I can't come
And thy will be done
Thy will be done
As it was before
Thy will be done
Thy will be done
Thy will be done
As it was before
Don't want to hear about your little problems We're not so political and nobody cares where you're from, where you're from
'Cause you know that laugh it's a thing of wonder
We can wait, we can wait, we can wait for the morning to come, to come
And thy will be done
Thy will be done
As it was before
Thy will be done
Thy will be done
Thy will be done
As it was before
Thy will be done
