I've tried and tried
To understand what, what you've been thinking
So where's your pride
When your security is self-seeking?

Misleading on
You're an example leading kids astray
So carry on
Don't you count on any help from me

Can't you see that your life's breaking?
It's what you wanted, I didn't think so
Are these walls that you've been making
What you wanted? Do you even know?

When you fall down
If you need me I'll be waiting
You convict yourself
Maintaining your integrity

Can't you see that your life's breaking?
It's what you wanted, I didn't think so
Are these walls that you've been making
What you wanted? Do you even know?

Can't you see that your life's breaking?
It's what you wanted, I didn't think so
Are these walls that you've been making
What you wanted? Do you even know?
