Right and wrong was black and white
I should have tried to cross those lines
Now all the flaws I saw are gray
Since the color's gone to waste

Blow one last kiss to poison me
Before you say goodbye
'Cause I can't live without
The colors you'll be takin' from my life

I expected way too much
To change you into someone else
You dressed me up in all your love
While I consumed myself

Blow one last kiss to poison me
Before you say goodbye
'Cause I can't live without
The colors you'll be takin' from my life
The final blow, the final blow
Even if the love between us left is gray (the final blow, the final blow)
We can make it through a cloudy colored day (the final blow, the final blow)
The red is fading from your rose
As our bleeding colors show (the final blow, the final blow)

Blow one last kiss to poison me
Before you say goodbye
'Cause I can't live without
The colors you'll be takin' from my life
The final blow the final blow

One kiss of fate
Is all it takes
The final blow, the final blow...

Chorus Backup lyrics (colors fade goodbye)
