I didn't have any room to breathe
Your love was so much
That it made me crazy
I really do appreciate you
Wanna celebrate you
If we gonna grow
Gotta sow the seeds slow
So we can build
And be strong
Have a story so long
That can be told even
When we're gone

I love the way you dream
I love the way you kiss
I love the in between
Of your sentences

I didn 't say that we were over
I only said to take it slower
I didn't say to walk away
I only said
To give it space
I kept telling you about
All I had been through
And how my broken heart
Truly needed to
Regroup

I didn't have anytime
To understand my grief
You came along so
Fast trying to rescue me
I am so grateful
For your generosity
You're so beautiful
But I don't wanna damage, ya

I love the way you dream
I love the way you kiss
I love the in between
Of your sentences

All I really need is a day for me
To understand
How I can fall in love again

I didn 't say that we were over
I only said to take it slower
I didn't say to walk away
I only said
To give it space
I kept telling you about
All I had been through
Regroup
