Don't say no more Jeannie's waitin'
And I've always been as true as I could be
Your lips look so warm and inviting
I'd better leave Jeannie's waitin' for me

If she knew I was here she'd be crying
And that's something that I never wanna see
Your hands are so warm they're too warm
I'd better leave Jeannie's waitin' for me

And I love her much too much to ever hurt her

We'd both be better off if I'd just leave
Fate was so unkind to throw us here together
I'd better leave Jeannie's waitin' for me
I'd better leave Jeannie's waitin' for me
