(Ann Prince)

I feel a cry coming on, mhm, mhm, mhm.

Was it sadness in your eryl'es I saw today
Or did anger make you turn and walk away
Anyhow it made me fall apart
Now that old familiar pain is in my heart.

And I feel a cry coming
Each time I see you again
Or when something reminds me you are gone
Then I feel a cry coming on.

This part of you that's so much part of me
Keeps haunting my dreams constantly
Just when I think that time has eased the pain
I dream of you and start hurting again.

And I feel a cry coming on
Each time I see you again
Or when something reminds me you are gone
Then I feel a cry coming on.
