I've gotta talk to your heart you have no right to make me cry
The love I've shone for you these years can't be washed away with tears
I've gotta talk to your heart
I've gotta make you understand our love is drifting far apart Won't you please stop where you are let's not carry this too far
I've gotta talk to your heart Too wise to told you all those lies that brought tears to your eyes
You know this never could be So before you say goodbye give me another try And I'll prove they're wrong you'll see I've gotta talk to your heart just gotta make you understand

I've gotta try to change your mind give me just a little time
I've gotta talk to your heart
[guitar]
Too wise to told you all those lies...
