"Longing To Hold You Again"

All alone here am I so lonely I could cry cause I'm longing to hold you again
Missing you is all I do I dream the whole day through
How I'm longing to hold you again
The world is cold the world is grey you took the sunshine away
You'll never know how empty my arms have been Till once more you're close to me as close as we can be
I'll be longing to hold you again
[piano]
How I'm longing to hold you again
[guitar]

Yes I'm longing to hold you again
The world is cold...
I'll be longing to hold you again
