(Harlan Howard)

Everytime I look at you
I pinch myself can it be true
This lovely girl is really mine
Any wonder I find.

The girls get prettier every day
Cuter and lovelier in every way
The girls get prettier every day
And honey, especially you.

I saw your friend in town today
Her hair fixed up in a brand new way
She's as cute as she can be
And it seems to me.

The girls get prettier every day
Cuter and lovelier in every way
The girls get prettier every day
And honey, especially you.

--- Instrumental ---

Tomboy Beckie comes to town
Wearing her brand new satin gown
All the fellows turn around
And their hearts begin to pound.

The girls get prettier every day
Cuter and lovelier in every way
The girls get prettier every day
And honey, especially you.

Honey, especially you.
Honey, especially you.
Honey, especially you...
