(Fred Rose)

We live in two different worlds dear
That's why we're so far apart
You made your world out of vows that are broken
I built the world in my heart.

(Everyone here tried to warn me)
You were just playing a game
(I told them all we were meant for each other)
I thought our worlds were the same.

--- Instrumental ---

We live in two different worlds dear
My world is honest and true
Sweetheart remember when your world gets lonely
I'll still be waiting for you...
