[Buy " " CD]

Written by Kennedy\Simon

Recorded by Hank Snow with Anita Carter

CHORUS:

Down the trail of achin' hearts

Where nobody is hiding their tears

You sent me there where sadness starts

Down the trail of achin' hearts

(Anita sings)

You told me I was your darling

You kept me hanging around

Somebody else is your darling

So lonesome and blue I'll be found

Go to chorus

(Hank sings)

Once I was passing your window

Under the light of a star

Somebody else played my love song

And play it on my olden guitar

Go to chorus
