Though men may strive to go beyond the reap of space
To walk beyond the distance shining stars
This world's a room so small within my Master's house
The open sky's but a portion of his yard.

How big is God, how big and wide is last domain
To try to tell these lips can only start
He's big enough to rule the mighty universe
Yet small enough to live within my heart.

--- Instrumental ---

As winter's chill may cause the tiny seed to fall
To lie asleep till waked by summer's rain
The heart grown cold well worn and -?- with life anew
The Master's touch will bring the glow again.

How big is God, how big and wide is last domain
To try to tell these lips can only start
He's big enough to rule the mighty universe
Yet small enough to live within my heart...
