My love has gone, my pride has gone, I care no more
My heart is tired from loving you, I care no more
I don't regret the day we met, when love was there
Now love has gone, life lingers on, I just don't care.

Love is a thing that is crazy for all no matter who
I had my love but I lost it all when I lost you
It never should have happened and it won't no more
My love has gone, my pride has gone, I just don't care.

(Love is a thing that is crazy for all no matter who)
I had my love but I lost it all when I lost you
It never should have happened and it won't no more
My love has gone, my pride has gone, I care no more.

(Care no more...)
