In the misty moonlight by the flickering firelight
Any place is all right long as I'm with you
In a faraway land on the trophic sea sand
If your hand's in my hand I won't be blue.

Way up on the mountain, a way down in the valley
I know I'll be happy anyplace anywhere I don't care
In the misty moonlight by the flickering firelight
Any place is all right long as you are there.

I could be happy in one little room
With only a table and a chair
As happy as I'd be in a kingdom
By the sea, darling, if you were there.

I could be rich or I could be poor
But if you were by my side
I could be anything in the whole wide world
And I know I'll be satisfied.

Way up on the mountain, a way down in the valley
I know I'll be happy anyplace anywhere I don't care
In the misty moonlight by the flickering firelight
Any place is all right long as you are there...
