When I think of the dreams I've let slip through my hands
And the years that I've wasted Lord I've cried from my shame
But when I feel the glow of your love then I know
That I've done at least one thing that was good in my life.

Yes, I've done at least one thing that was good in my life
And with you I have one dream that will live through the night
And each day I will know as I watch our love grow
That I've done at least one thing that was good in my life.

When I think of the dreams I've let slip through my hands
And the years that I've wasted Lord I've cried from my shame
But then when I feel the glow of your sweet love then I know
That I've done at least one thing that was good in my life.

Yes, I've done at least one thing that was good in my life
And with you I have one dream that will live through the night
And each day I will know as I watch our love grow
That I've done at least one thing that was good in my life...
