Written & Recorded by Hank Snow

As the twilight shadows deepen
Where the weeping willow waves,
All alone in tears I'm kneeling
O'er my sweetheart's lonely grave.

CHORUS

I am asking God's forgiveness,
For you're waiting there I know,
Out beyond that blue horizon
Just across the bridge of gold.

I regret those words I've spoken
Every yesterday of tears
That I caused you little darling
As we wandered through the years

CHORUS

If I'd only read your letter
Saying you were in despair
That your weary heart was broken
And in pain was lying there.

CHORUS

I tonight would not be weeping
O'er the roses on your grave.
But instead dear I'd be happy
And this sorrow I'd have saved.

CHORUS

If I only would have listened
When you told me not to stray

But I said I loved another
Left you there and went away.

CHORUS

Now my life is sad and lonely
Down life's path I trudge along
But I'll meet you up in heaven
When from this old world I've gone.

CHORUS
