We just discovered each other
Tonight when the lights were low
One dance led up to another
And now, I can't let you go

So tell me, I may always dance
The anniversary waltz with you
Tell me this is real romance
An anniversary dream come true

Let this be the answer to our future years
Through millions of smiles and a few little tears
May I always listen to the anniversary waltz
With you

Let this be the answer to our future years
Through millions of smiles and a few little tears
May I always listen to the anniversary waltz
With you
