I guess I'm as quiet as I can be There are times I can't say what I need when I love you needs to be said I hold you tight instead and let my heart , do my talking for me

chorus

I let my heart do my talking for me when I can't find the words for what I feel If I need your loving touch
I don't have to say too much,

I let my Heart do my talking for me

If I ever need to poem a phase My heart knows a million different ways when my love burns deep inside but my silly tongue gets tied my heart knows exactly what to do.
