Let's break the seal on a new deal of love
All along we've been wrong with our love
I can't trust and believe
When you've got aces up your sleeve
Let's discard our pride and deal a new hand of love

We'll put the cards on the table
Let's understand the rules
Stop dealing from the bottom like a couple of fools
We'll turn our whole cards face up
And a broken heart we'll lace up
Let's shuffle up our future and deal a new hand of love

On the draw all I saw was your love
You could have checked but you wrecked all our love
You've raised me long enough
And now I'll call your bluff
It's time that we dealt a brand new hand of love

I'm willing to start over but with the rules you must comply
I want all of your kisses; I don't like it when you're shy
If love is like poker don't use me as the joker
Let's ante up our hearts and deal a new hand of love
