Signed sealed and delivered a package containing my heart

To open remove the wrapper but please don't tear it apart

You tore up this heart when you left me you left me alone and so blue

I'm sending this special delivery the postman will bring it to you

[fiddle]

I thought perhaps you would keep it just for a while don't you see

Oh darling please keep it forever without you it's no good to me

Signed sealed and delivered a package containing my heart

I send it to you as a token I'm sorry we're so far apart
