

Hank Thompson

"World's Greatest Feelin'"

Visit "World's Greatest Feelin'" on MotoLyrics.com

I get the world's greatest feelin' just knowing that you're mine.

And knowing I'm your lover and your friend.

All I have to do is think of you and it happens every time.

I get the world's greatest feelin' all over again.

If I climbed the highest mountain any man could ever climb,

If I found the richest gold mine in the world.

There would be no satisfaction half as good as what I find,

Every time I put my arms around you girl.

I get the world's greatest feelin' just knowing that
you're mine.

And knowing I'm your lover and your friend.

All I have to do is think of you and it happens every
time.

I get the world's greatest feelin' all over again.

I may never be a rich man who can buy most anything.

And I doubt they'll build a statue in my name.

Nothing else could ever give me all the happiness you bring.

I've got something worth much more than wealth or fame.

I get the world's greatest feelin' just knowing that
you're mine.

And knowing I'm your lover and your friend.

All I have to do is think of you and it happens every
time.

I get the world's greatest feelin' all over again.

I get the world's greatest feelin' all over again.

I get the world's greatest feelin'.

Visit Hank Thompson page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.