

Hank Williams

"Leave Me Alone With The Blues"

Visit "Leave Me Alone With The Blues" on MotoLyrics.com

[d] better pack up your suitcase and [g] leave in a [d]
hurry
Now I dont wanna show you the door
[d] since the day that we met youve been [g] nothin but [d] trouble
Now I dont want you [a] here [d] anymore

Run [g] along run along dont [d] pester me further
For I [g] know that youll never be [d] true
If you cant treat me right then get [g] out of my [d] life
Go and leave me [a] alone with the [d] blues

[d] oh you stayed by my side till you [g] got all my [d]
money
Now my clothes are all ragged and torn [d] since the day that we met youve been [g] nothin but [d] worry
Lord I wish I had [a] never been [d] born

Run [g] along run along dont you [d] pester me further
I [g] know that youll never be [d] true
If you cant treat me right then get [g] out of my [d] life
Go and leave me [a] alone with these [d] blues

[d] you may ramble and ramble this [g] whole wide world [d] over
But dont trust any woman you meet [d] they wont leave you alone till theyve [g] got your last [d] dollar
Then youre just like the [a] dirt beneath their [d] feet

Run [g] along run along dont you [d] pester me further
For [g] I know that youll never be [d] true
If you cant treat me right then get [g] out of my [d] life
Go and leave me [a] alone with these [d] blues

Ron mcgough

Visit Hank Williams page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

