Standin' by a lonesome graveyard
Everything I love is gone
Weeping as they lay my darling
'Neath the cold gray tomb of stone

In this world I'm left to wander
With no one to call my own
While my precious darling's sleeping
'Neath the cold gray tomb of stone

Out there in that lonesome graveyard
She is sleeping all alone
And I buried my heart with her
'Neath a cold gray tomb of stone

Skies above are dark and stormy
For the sunshine, all is gone
And the while my love is sleeping
'Neath a cold gray tomb of stone

My heart's dead and yet I'm living
Wandering through this world alone
I wish that I was with my darling
'Neath a cold gray tomb of stone
