[c] no one will ever know [f] my heart is [c] breaking
Al[g]though a million teardrops start to [c] flow
Ill cry myself to sleep [f] and wake up [c] smiling
Ill [g] miss you but no one will ever [c] know

Ill [g] tell them we grew tired of each [c] other
And [d] realized our dreams could never [g] be
Ill [c] even make believe [f] I never [c] loved you
Then no [g] one will ever know the truth but [c] me

[c]no one will ever know [f] how much Im [c] pineing
Each [g] time the past comes back to haunt me [c] so
No one will ever see [f] the tears Im [c] hiding
Youve [g] hurt me but no one will ever [c] know

Ill [g] tell then I found true love with [c] another
That [d] I was glad the day you set me [g] free
Ill [c] even make believe [f] I never [c] loved you
Then no [g] one will ever know the truth but [c] me
