YOU CAN'T TAKE MY MEMORIES OF YOU

(Hank Williams - Hank Williams Jr.)

© '69 Fred Rose Music

Today you tell me you are leaving that you are going far away Darling I've got no way of holding you so this is all that I can say
You can't take my memories of you you can go and leave me oh so blue Break my heart and you can make me cry but you can't take my memories of you

I tried every way to make you happy but I guess it was never meant to be So today you say you are going far away across the deep blue sea

Now after you are gone my darling each night I go down to the sea
And gaze at the stars as I wonder where you are And pray some day that you'll come back to me But you can't take my memories...
